Linda! You are an angel. Thank you for sharing all your wonderful insights. You may have a good point there....to fulfill your highest purpose by helping people reconnect with Oneness and recognize ego's opposite intention. I am currently reading A New Earth for the first time and love it....oh boy, I can see where this is all going....and I'm with ya sweet sister....

See you soon! ☺

This has truly been an interesting year for many of us! I've been doing a lot of exploration/release of ego consciousness recently as well. I'm finding that sitting in pure appreciation and gratitude and letting those feelings just wash over me has been elevating my consciousness and smoothing out my path.

The gratitude practice really is helping me. It helps me remember that all really is well underneath the illusions.

Thank you for sharing your insights & experience, you are a light of love :)
Blessings,
Amanda D.

Wow Linda
You should continue writing and publish. We will spend the rest of our earthly lives awakening to truth. What a great journey we all are on!
Love you
